

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., January 15th, 1886.

Sir,

Your letter of the 13th inst. in relation to the removal of Mr. Walu, and returning his letter, is received.

I have no desire to question your action in [not] replacing Mr. Walu but, in order that the Bureau may be enabled to act intelligently in the matter. I would prefer that the hand writing of the several letters be submitted to the report of the Department for opinion. I will therefore thank you to cause the anonymous communication in question, as well as such other specimens of Mr Wallis's penmanship as you may have in your possession.*

Very respectfully,

[Abstract:] Letter of 13th recd. as to Mr. Walns removal...

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
January 15, 1886

Sir:

Your letter of the 13th inst. in relation to the removal of Mr. Waln, and returning his letter, is received.

I have no desire to question your action in (not) replacing Mr. Waln but, in order that the Bureau may be enabled to act intelligently in the matter, I would prefer that the hand writing of the several letters be submitted to the expert of the Department for opinion. I will therefore thank you to cause the anonymous communication in question, as well as such other specimens of Mr. Waln's penmanship as you may have in your possession.*

Very respectfully,
Jas. P. Kimball
Director.
